

La Serbie va entamer des négociations d'adhésion en Janvier 2014

On 17 December 2013 the Council discussed the EU enlargement and stabilisation and association process and adopted the general EU position on accession negotiations with Serbia.

The general EU position on negotiations with Serbia includes the negotiating framework which sets out the principles governing the accession negotiations. The ministers agreed that the first intergovernmental conference with Serbia would take place in January 2014.

The Council took note of the progress achieved by Albania and looked forward to a decision regarding the granting of candidate status to Albania in June 2014. The ministers also commended Albania on its intensified efforts in the fight against corruption and organised crime.

The EU welcomed Turkey's signing of the readmission agreement and the initiation of the dialogue on visa liberalisation. The ministers also called on Turkey to sustain the regained momentum in the accession negotiations.

The Council also discussed progress in Montenegro, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Kosovo.
