

Italie: Protection of fish nursery areas

Oceana has submitted a proposal to the General Fisheries Commission for the Mediterranean Sea to permanently close key nursery areas in the Strait of Sicily to bottom trawling.

According to the international marine conservation organisation, this measure will contribute to the restoration of unmanaged fisheries in the Mediterranean Sea, where 92% of demersal fish stocks are overexploited.

Source : <http://www.fis.com/12/03/2015>