Source: Information prepared by iQconsulting from SAG/Asoex. From information prepared by Asoex A.G. according to the inspections forms submitted by the exporters to SAG (Agricultural and Livestock Service).

With the 1,788 tons exported during week 09, the total accumulated of 109,669 tons is close to the exported volume of last season.

In summary up to week 09, the total exports are 2% over last season at the same week, while organic blueberries total 13,371 tons, 36% over the previous season in the same week.

On the other hand, the weather continues unstable with intermittent rains that affect the harvest areas. This week (10) there was rainfall from Araucanía to the South, which could affect fresh exports.
